Published by the

Students of Pearl River

Junior College, 1954

Hi Gang,

We are here to express to you our pleasure in bringing you the 1954 edition of the year-book. We hope you will enjoy looking at it as much as we have enjoyed working on it.

May you always remember the good times you have had at P. R. J. C. when you look at your WILDCAT.

President's Message

PEARL RIVER JUNIOR COLLEGE

POPLARVILLE, MISS.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

TO THE STUDENTS AND FACULTY:

The school year 1953-54 has brought to each of us opportunities and challenges. It has presented opportunities to students to extend and develop further their educational growth. To the faculty it has presented opportunities for guiding, directing, and counseling with young people who were seeking to improve themselves intellectually, physically, and socially. This school year has presented challenges to both students and faculty to utilize profitably the opportunities available.

To the students and teachers who have worked so diligently to make this book possible, I want to express my sincere appreciation. I sincerely hope that each individual who receives this annual will cherish it as a record of a pleasant and profitable experience here at Pearl River Junior College.

Sincerely,

G. H. Johnston

THE DIXIE DRAWL

VOLUME 16 OFFICIAL STUDENT PAPER OF PEARL RIVER COLLEGE AND AGRICULTURAL HIGH SCHOOL, JANUARY 19, 1954 No. 5

Council Announces Who's Who Contest Winners

The Wildcat GROWL

Marie Smith

About twelve junior college students have begun research work on this year's college debate topic in preparation for the Mississippi Junior College Forensic Tournament to be held at Clarke Memorial Junior College, Newton, Mississippi, on February 18-19.

The topic this year is "Resolved That the United States should adopt a policy of free trade."

Among those already working in preparation for the tournament are Martin Travis Smith, David Smith, Kent Robbins, Warren Lee Seals, Carilyn Crosen, Ruth Lazenby, Jerry Wesley, Kenneth Deere Jerry McMurray, John Baggett.

This year in addition to debates the tournament will consist of contests in oratory, extemporaneous speaking, oral interpretation, and after-dinner speaking.

Anybody who is interested in taking part in any of these types of speech may contact any one of the group named above.

Marlene Egloff's picture was a front page feature in "The Echo", Bay St. Louis local newspaper last week. She was chosen most beautiful girl at P.R.C.

Our bookstore and snack bar has a new name, Cat's Corner, and our newspaper has been renamed, "The Dixie Drawl".

There will be a meeting of the Cadet Staff Monday afternoon, 3:15, in the Cadet office, which is in the High School Building. All members are urged to attend. Plans will be made for the next issue of The Cadet.

More snapshots are needed for the snapshot pages in the Annual. If you have some group snapsbots or individual snaps please turn them in by Friday.

New Years resolutions have been made and broken, maybe we'd better declare another New Year's day for Daisy and Mona.

Miss Coleman's typing class deserves honorable mention in the Who's Who election for helping to type and mimeograph the ballots.

Many congratulations to the winners of the Who's Who and Campus Beauties Contest. It took long enough to decide who they were to be. Martin Travis has done a very good job of these elections and the paper staff wishes to thank him for his cooperation.

We will be glad to have Mr. Higmon as faculty advisor for The Cadet next semester. Miss McSwain will devote her time to the debate team.

We wonder how Pat McNeese is getting along after her appendix operation this week? We hope she is doing well and will soon be back with us again.

The YWA Christmas party was held December 15 in the dining hall. The group sang Christmas carols and Betty Ruth Smith led the devotional. The group exchanged gifts and Mrs. Miller, YWA counselor, served the group chicken salad sandwiches, pecan pie and cokes.

January Declared March Of Dimes Month: P.R.C. Classes Organize, Contribute $100

(an editorial)

The month of January has been set aside by Governor Hugh White as March of Dimes Month in Misssisippi. Wednesday, January 14, was the beginning of this campaign in our own school. Each class has set its goal, and together these quotas have made up the goal of $100 for P.R.C.

Campus Beauties Are Chosen

Nellie Don Robbins and Bill Mitchell have been elected to reign over our campus as Mr. and Miss P.R.C. After Joan Gilpin and Virgle Burge won the top honors in the high school, as Mr. and Miss P. H. S. in an election sponsored by the student council and the annual staff.

Four ballots were necessary before the final results of the election could be announced. Much interest was shown in the Who's Who Contest, and the number of votes in this election was an increase over the number in the past.

Along with the last Who's Who contest was held an election for the selection of six campus beauties. The winners of the six top spots were as follows: Marlene Egloff, Betty Lou Courtney, Carolyn Stewart, Bobbie Lou Baggett, Carol Ruddick, and Peggy Sue Galt in the college. In the high school the top six were: Alice Faye White, Nina Smith, Glenda Tynes, Peggy Willoughby, Patsy Ford and Betty Jean Rouse. The campus Beauties contest was sponsored by the Student Council for the Annual Staff.

ALMA MATER

O, Pearl River College, we're loyal to you,
To our Alma Mater we're faithful and true.
You stand on the hills with the tall swaying pines,
The symbol of all honor you'll be through all time.
You stand for the highest, and we will uphold
Your standards and colors of Maroon and Gold,
And where'er we wander from these halls so dear
The clear call of our college we will always hear.
